

MEMORANDUM

May 24, 2021

TO: NCAA Division I Baseball Umpires.

FROM: George M. Drouches
NCAA National Coordinator of Umpires.

SUBJECT: 2021 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship Umpire Assignments.

Please use the following links that are available on the ArbiterSports website (Home Plate section) to view the 2021 NCAA Division I Baseball Championship umpire assignments by round:

2021 NCAA Division I Baseball Regionals
2021 NCAA Division I Baseball Super Regionals
2021 NCAA Men's College World Series

Regional competition will be conducted June 4-7. Please note that one regional could possibly begin on June 3 if an institution is selected for the championship that requires a religious accommodation. Site selections for the 16 regional sites will be determined on the evening of Sunday, May 30. Selected officials will be notified of their specific assignment via an email from me by Monday, May 31. Umpires assigned to a regional will need to arrive on Wednesday, June 2 to be able to participate in on-site COVID-19 testing on Thursday, June 3. Super Regional umpires will be notified of their specific assignments via an email from me on Tuesday, June 8. Umpires assigned to a super regional will need to arrive on-site two days before the first day of competition.

If you have been selected for a championship assignment, please use the following link on the ArbiterSports website to review a memorandum. This memorandum contains important additional information and links to other ArbiterSports website postings regarding the logistics for working the NCAA Division I Baseball Championship. It is VERY important that you complete EACH request immediately. Please note that all umpire payments in 2021 will be made through ArbiterSports/ArbiterPay. It is critical that any umpire not having a linked ArbiterSports/ArbiterPay account follow the instructions in the memorandum to create an account for payment.
